The Chair of History at the North Carolina University was established none too soon. No effort should be spared to teach the youth of the South the truth and the whole truth about the history of the South. It is easy for the meaning and significance of an event to be distorted through ignorance, superficial information, prejudice or wilful misrepresentation. Against all these the South must protect itself.—Charlotte Chronicle.

THE EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

DANGER IN IT.

Senator Aycock, of Wayne, agrees with THE CAUCASIAN in condemning the proposition of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, that was accepted by the Railway Investigating Committee. What is the proposition? In substance it is about as follows:

That for a consideration of about $20,000 taxes, ti be paid by the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, that the State enter into a contract with said company that it shall never be taxed more than above amount and that certain rights and privileges be granted the compauy, viz: That the capital stock of said company be increased to $10,000,000, in all respects like the stock before issued, that the company have the right to consolidate with or buy any other railway or stock of other companies or to enter into any traffic agreement it may desire without further permission or consent from the State.

In the first issue of our paper, after the proposition was accepted by the committee to be recommended to the next General Assembly, we said that it would not do. We gave warning that there was a Trojan horse in it. No people can afford to grant such extraordinary and perpetual privileges for such a pittance of taxation, and any Legislature that would swallow the bait would be untrue to the people. We are opposed to accepting a cent of taxation that comes loaded with such a burden. Senator Aycock, who was a member of the committee, voted against accepting the proposition and we are glad to see him out in a card giving his reasons. His card is as follows:

After maturely considering the proposition of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company in the draft of a bill submitted to this committee, I am compelled to dissent from the action of the committee recommending the acceptance of the proposition for the following reasons:

1. The powers given to make connection, and the general privileges bestowed by the bill on the company are too general and far reaching, the grant of unlimited powers of consolidations being, in my opinion, capable of being so used as to prove injurious to the interest of the people of the State.

2. The valuation of the railroad bed of the main track is fixed at not more than $8,000 per mile, and that of the branches at not more than $4,000 per mile, and the State bound by contract not to exceed these valuations for purposes of taxation, thereby putting the property of the corporation upon a different footing from that of the private tax-payer. I think the valuation ought to be made under the general law, and not restricted, as is proposed. If the State should be bound by such a contract as is proposed, the value of the road-bed might double and treble, but the tax value would remain always the same.

3. Under the proposed bill the property of the company, the value of which has not yet been ascertained, other than the road-bed, locomotives, engines, cars and other rolling stock, would escape taxation.

4. The bill limits perpetually the rate of taxation, fixes the valuation of the road-bed for all time, and recognizes and approves the principle that one law of taxation may exist for the property of a corporation and another for the taxation of that of the individual.

5. I think the surrender of exemption should be made with fewer conditions, and I believe if it were so made the company could safely rely upon obtaining from the Legislature such privileges as it might reasonably ask, and such as may be necessary to it in the conduct of its business. The railroads of the State have been trusted by the Legislature with unequalled power, and they have no reason to fear any unreasonable refusal of legislation in their behalf.

6. The alleged contract, whereby the company has always claimed its exemption from taxation, has been and still is a source of irritation to the people of the State, and a constant source of annoyance to the taxing powers, and I am not in favor of the State entering into any new contract with this company or any other which shall have for its effect the suggestion of any claim of exemption from taxation or the curtailing of the right of the State to derive revenue from any and every species of property within its territory.

In arriving at these conclusions, I am not insensible of the great benefit which will be derived to the people of this State by the contribution of so large a sum to the Treasury as the company has proposed, which would yield to the State and counties about $20,000 yer annum, but seeing the danger of such legislation has led me to the conclusion that the proposed legislation would be unwise.

I regret that I am unable to concur with the majority of the committee. B. F. AYCOCK.

Let us strive for a reduction of taxation on the necessaries of life—for a reduction of the expenditures of the government—for an increase of the currency and the price of farm products by the free coinage of silver and the restoration of its full legal tender character—for the repeal of the tax upon State banks—for the regulation of transportation rates by railroad commissions, and last, but not least, let us earnestly contend against the spirit of centralization, which is constantly threatening to absorb the local self-government of the people of the States. —Zeb. B. Vance.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE.

It was eminently fitting that the Democrats of the 3rd Congressional District should the other day at Clinton invest with the highest honors in their gift one whose life, though hitherto comparatively removed from public view, has been replete with valued services to his fellow-men. A graduate of the University of his native State, which he honors by his ripe scholarship and varied attainments, B. F. Grady, after four years of service to his country in the field—given with the self-abnegation and devotion to principle characteristic of the man—has consecrated his intellectual vigor and prime to the great work of a field where the laurels are unfading; the promotion of the interests of both higher and common school education. As Superintendent of Public Instruction in his county, in the class-room, in the lecture-hall, in the columns of the press, he has been always an educator in the best sense of the word, a soulful laborer in the task of freeing the youthful mind from the trammels of ignorance, and elevating it to the broader and brighter domain of intelligence. A member of the Farmers' Alliance, Mr. Grady is a consistent friend of the agricultural interests, while his liberal and advanced views on all important subjects render him a well chosen representative of every class of the people.

It is especially seemly, too, that the convention by its nomination made recognition of the past services of Mr. Grady's native county, Duplin, and cast about its splendid Democratic record the wreath of victory. The "banner" county of the district goes into this fight with its own gallant standard-bearer. —Fayetteville Observer.

RIGHT KIND OF TALK.

To my friends of the Third Congressional District: It is no time for regret. The success of the Democratic party and the domination of the white people in North Carolina is paramount to all other considerations. You made a valiant and determined fight to secure my renomination, from the 1st to the 179th ballot, you proved to me your devotion, loyalty and confidence. I thank you for it I deeply, profoundly and sincerely appreciate it. You are Democrats. Your first and last consideration is Democratic supremacy in North Carolina. Without the asking you, I know, will support my successor, B. F. Grady, of the noble, true, tried and patriotic county of Duplin. As you have supported me, I ask you to follow me in the coming campaign.

C. W. MCCLAMMY.

Commissioner of Agriculture Robinson writes that after having travelled over the greater portion of the cotton producing section of the State, he has never seen a better prospect for a good crop, and the same is true also of tobacco, another "money" crop. In consequence of this cheerful outlook the farmers are hopeful and in good spirits. In addition to this he says that the crops, as fair as they promise, have cost less to produce than any previous year attributable not alone to the favorable seasons, but also to the unusual economy practiced by the farmers. With no mishaps between now and harvest time he is of opinion that our farmers will have more money at the close of the present year than at any time in the past ten years.—Wil. Star.

It is admitted that all the corn crop of central Kansas is ruined. No matter how much rain falls hot winds have blown for days and stalks are shriveled. Only local rains have fallen for over a month, and the prairies are so dry that fires break out daily. The hay crop is an entire failure, as well as the fruit crop.

BATTLING WITH A STALLION.

Harvey Smith Kills the Brute With One Blow of a Sled Stake.

Harvey A. Smith had a desperate battle at Presque Island, Me., with a stallion. The stallion is dead and Smith still lives, but is in a sadly crippled condition. During last winter he drove a team in the lumber woods, of which one animal was a stallion that no one but Smith could handle. This summer he has worked the stallion and his mate on the farm. Yesterday the stallion became vicious and frantically attacked his mate with teeth and hoofs. Mr. Smith uncoupled the horses, when the stallion attacked him. He is a powerful and very resolute man, and after a fierce struggle, in which he was severely wounded in the hip by the animal's feet, he succeeded in subduing the horse and leading him to the barn. He hitched him on the barn floor, removed the harness and was proceeding to take him to a stall when the vicious animal again attacked him. The wind blew the barn door shut and Mr. Smith found himself imprisoned with the frantic brute.

For nearly half an hour he fought him with no weapon but his fists, but being often knocked down and fearfully bruised he found his strength failing and was just making up his mind that it was all up with him, when the horse disengaged a sled take from the side of the mow and Smith saw it rolling toward him. Seizing the stake he swung it with all the strength of desperation, and, striking the stallion behind the ear, he laid him dead at his feet.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Eight Fatally Hurt in a Collision at Bedford, Ind.

There was a terrific wreck on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad Sunday morning. About seven miles north of Bedford, Ind., the outbound passenger train from Chicago came into collision with the north bound passenger train from Louisville on a sharp curve, killing the engineer and fireman of train No. 3, and fatally injured the engineer and fireman on the other train, James Tilford, postal clerk, and Frank Blackwell, express messenger. Not a single passenger was injured. The two engines are totally destroyed. Two mail cars, the express cars, and two parlor cars were telescoped. Conductor John Burns was in charge of the train going north and was on time leaving here, but when the train struck he was two minutes late, while the southbound train was six hours late. Conductor McDonald says that he and his engineer agreed to run on the side track at Guthrie three miles north of the wreck, and wait there for the north bound train. He went to sleep and did not wake up until they struck. All the injured were taken to Louisville, and all that were able to stand travel were taken on to New Albany on a special train.

MINISTER MIZNER HEARD FROM.

After a Long Silence He Is Again in Communication With the United States.

The State Department has received a dispatch from Lansing B. Mizner, United States minister resident in Central America, stating that he was at a place called Menton, in Gautemala, and that he was in communication with the commanders of the United States vessels Thetis and Ranger. Mr. Mizner says nothing about the bloody conflicts supposed to be in progress between Gautemala and Salvador, or the reported outbreaks against the administration of General Barillas, which are said to be starting up in several provinces in Gautemala. He also failed to refer in any way to the recent seizure of arms on the Pacific mail steamer Colima by the Gautemalan authorities, as to the facts of which he has been instructed by the State Department to report. Mr. Mizner's silence as to all important particulars is thought to signify either that he has not received the dispatches sent him during the last fortnight, or that the Gautemalan government will not allow him to give out the particulars of any of the internal affairs of the country. The telegram came through Minister Ryan at Mexico.

The steamer has three keels, one center and two side keels, is 134 feet long, and is designed to carry 500 tons of coal. Superior advantages in shallow water over other crafts are claimed from her peculiar construction, it being claimed that she will draw only eight feet.

It is now believed that Father Burtsell will not go to Rondout, but will finally be assigned to another parish in New York.

At Reading, Pa., Saturday, the wife of John Fertig, of Rock Station, prepared a mixture of poison to kill rats. Later, while preparing dinner, she accidentally mistook the mixture for brown sugar and put a tablespoonful of it in some dough. At dinner the whole family ate heartily of it. Shortly afterward they were taken violently ill, and suffered intensely. A doctor was summoned and with difficulty relieved Mrs. Fertig and her four children, though they are still very ill. Mr. Fertig's condition is very alarming.

The hot weather of the last week has had a bad effect on the crops in Minnesota and both the Dakotas. In South Dakota wheat is almost all harvested. The hot winds of two weeks ago did it much damage, and not as large a proportion as usual will grade Nos. 1 and 2. The corn crop may be said to be almost completely ruined, and not over 15 to 20 per cent. of a crop is now in sight. Indications point to a light yield in North Dakota, except in the counties bordering on Red River. No harvesting will be done before the middle of next week. During the last 10 days the outlook has changed greatly for the worse.

Mr. Patten says he will bring about a prosecution for bigamy, and Ambrose's neighbors threaten to tar and feather him.

On August 15 rival Irish demonstrations will be held in Chicago, one under the auspices of the Clan na Gael, and the other conducted by the friends of Dr. Cronin. The anti-trianglers have adopted an address which severes the friends of Cronin's murderers, and says among other things: "This year the friends and associates of the murderers—the men who stand between the chief murderers and the gallows—have decided to use the proceeds of the Ogden Grove picnic for the benefit of their dupes, so that the tongues that would speak the words that would bring them within the grasp of the law may be kept silent a little longer by delusive hopes." What the anti-trianglers intend to do with the proceeds of their demonstration is not given out.

KEMMLER TO DIE

At Last the First Victim of Electrocution Faces Death.

There appears to be a good reason that William Kemmler's electrocution was set to take place between Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, the 5th and 6th of August. Several invitations to be present at the carrying out of the death sentence were received by various persons on Monday the 4th. The holders of the invitations have been very secretive and state that no time or hour was named in the invitations. A reporter was privileged to examine one of these gruesome invitations. It was written in typewriter on an Auburn prison letter head and invites its recipient to report at the prison "at 7 p. m. August 5." to "Charles F. Durston, Warden and Keeper."

Whether the execution to k place at night is uncertain, but the conjecture is that soon after the stroke of midnight Tuesday night Kemmler was to expiate his crime.

Mortally Wounded His Rival.

Davis Fitzgerald and William Mortley, brakemen on the Norfolk and Western Railway, have been in love with the same woman. Sunday Fitzgerald caught Mortley in company with the woman at Crews, and at once shot him, the ball entering the groin, inflicting a wound that will prove fatal. Fitzgerald fled to the woods, and a posse of men is in pursuit of him. Mortley is a resident of Petersburg, Va.

'Twas a Ghastly Find.

Charles Thompson, of Great Chebeague, Me., reports the finding on Goose Island, near Chebeague, the remains of children. On a rock were four hands and four feet, recently cut off. A large fire had been built near by, and among the charred pieces of wood were bones, as if the children's bodies had been burned. Coroner Davis will go down to the scene of the ghastly find.

It Is Possible We May Learn All About the Cronin Murder.

Dan. Coughlin, one of the Cronin suspects now serving his term in Joliet prison, is about ready, it is stated in a Chicago dispatch, to confess. He is fretting himself to death, and is but a shadow of his former self, and the prison warden believes that the crime so weighs on his mind that he is liable at any time to break down and make a full confession.

CONVENTIONS, 1890.

STATE CONVENTION

Is held at Raleigh, on Wednesday, August 20th.

Senator Vance has declared in favor of a Railroad commission.

Kemmler, the New York murderer dies today by electrocution, the first execution under the novel method of capital punishment.

Benjamin Franklin Grady, of Duplin, is his name, and a noble old Roman he is, with a grand and glorious old county to boast of as his birthplace.--Fayetteville Observer.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend the Lumber River Industrial and Live Stock Association, which will open at Red Springs, N. C., August 14th, and close Augnst 16th, 1890. Mr. R. T. Coington, editor of the Farmer and Scottish cheif is Secretary.

For arguments sake let us admit that Congress has not the power to appropriate money to be advanced to farmers upon their prodncts as provided in the Sub-Treasury bill, but has Congress not the power to return to the States a part of the excessive taxes collected and let the States use the money for the relief and benefit of the farmer on the same plan? Will some one answer.

Ninety per cent of the people of Georgia are in sympathy with the commission, its objects and aims, and any man who would, seek to injure it would get but one Legislative opportunity,

Instead of bringing or tending to bring on the evils of social negro equality, it has effectually erected barriers to it in railroad travel that can never be broken down or "burned away." The negroes ride in separate cars furnished for them by order of the railroad commission.—J. S. Candler, Solicitor-General Circuit Court, Ga.

The Wilmington Messenger of last Sunday says: "The Clinton CAUCASIAN's remark about the Messenger and prophecy is ill-timed. The prophecy was correct." If it is our prophecy,—that the somebody else would split from the Democratic party before the Alliance did—that is referred to, then it is correct. We consider our remarks very timely, for the people wish to know whether The Messenger is for or against the just demands that they are making. In one issue the weather cock of that paper seems to point one way, while in the next it will have ends reversed. In plain English the Farmers' Alliance would like to know whether the Messenger is a friend or a foe.

We have received the August number of the Old Homestead, a southern magazine published at Savannah, Ga., and devoted to literary, musical, fashion, and domestic matters. It is the only publication of its character in the south, and is filled with the choisest original stories, poems, essays, etc. A glance at its varied and interesting contents will convince one that it is one of the purest, cleanest and most refined magazines in the country. Its object is to encourage the literary tastes of the people of the south, and already many of the most brilliant writers of that section are enrolled among its contributers. The Old Homestead has no political or secterian affiliations; but has one object solely in view. and that is to elevate and refine. It is a publication of forty pages 11x15, with subscription price $1 a year. Send for sample copy, free, to Davis Bros, publishers and proprietors, Savannah, Ga

The Railroad Commission of Georgia is dearer and more valuable to the people than any other department of our State Government.—J. S. Candler, Solicitor-General Circuit Court, Ga.

It is the duty of the government to furnish the people with a sufficient amount of money, as a medium of exchanges to facilitate business and prevent one class from profeting by the manufactured wants of the other. This money should be furnished directly to the people and not sent to them through the ten per cent toll gates of national banks. The whole plan is oppressive and corrupt and the people will vote for no man who is opposed to their demands on this point.

Senator Aycock of Wayne who was a member of the Railway investigating committee is out in a card condemning the proposition of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company. They propose to pay $20,000 in taxes if the people will grant them a half a million dollars worth of priviliges. If their proposition were accepted, would be licensed to turn themselves, in conjuction with other corporations, into the most gigantic trust transportation company that this wourd has ever ssen. The proposition is an insult to a people already groaning under the oppressions of corporate power. We trust that the next Legislature will turn a deaf ear to the proposition and those who advocate it.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

(By The Caucasian Representative.)

The farmers say "we couldn't ask the Good Lord for better crops."

Revs. Wooten and Edwards are doing good work for the cause of religion in this section.

A Pender man reports an apple 5½ inches in diameter. The puzzleing part of the story is how it could grow in Pender without hanging out over in Sampson.

Nowhere in the State is the Farmers' Alliance better organized, or THE CAUCASIAN more popular than in this township. Nearly every man we approached would say, "yes, I have been wanting to take the paper."

It is reported on good authority that the colored votes in this township have already indicated that they propose to vote this fall with their best friends—the white farmers

"Maggie" the new boat for Black river made a trial trip up to Wheeler's Landing last week. She brought neither freight nor passengers but had two flats in tow. The boat we learn is owned by Mr. McDade of Wilmington.

At Mr. Love Jones' we saw a turkey hen that is worthy of mention in that she has in her wee family a brood of partridges, chickens and turkeys. She dispenses an equal share of maternal love and care to all the happy family. J. M.

AT HOME.

(Special Correspondence.)

There is one individualized being enjoying a healthful home after the return from a good visit West. Indeed, some are more susceptible of vital changes, of the materialistic clime than others, consequently such is the case with the writer.

The pure balmy air from off the mountain peak, to the weary traveler was a degree of inspirational happiness, not to be found in the malarial valley of Arkansas.

However we will say to those who wish to grow rich in a material sense, go West, but if ever return to the "old North State, honest souls will relate the story, here is the place of glory comparatively speaking.

Now a word to friends and relatives of Ark. If you wish to feel free and happy just come to N. C. Health is wealth to the soul in this as within the life beyond. So with renewed efforts for the development, of a higher plane and as the divine inner nature cries aloud "come" we should strive to "get there."

M. T. M.

Our organization is going grandly forward in this State and in the United States. In a few localities not much is being done, but they will catch the fever after a while. Within the past ten days forty new Sub-Alliance have been chartered in the State. The latest State organization is that of Illinois. If all our members everywhere will lay aside selfishness and nonsense and stick to our demands and principles, we could go forward twice as fast.—Progressive Farmer.

ALLIANCE NOTES, DISCUSSIONS AND THE DOINGS OF THE VARIOUS LODGES.

Union Alliance Meeting.

Five Alliance of Taylor's Bridge township held a union meeting at Red Hill on last Saturday, Aug. 2nd for the purpose of discussing the Railroad Commission. At the end of the discussion a vote was taken which resulted unanimously for a commission. These union meetings are held every three months to discuss topics of the day. This is to carry out the institute idea for discussions on farming and topics of public interest. A program is prepared at one meeting for the next. The next meeting will be Friday before the 1st Sunday in Nov. The secret part of the meeting is from 10 to 11 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the doors are thrown open for the public. Every body is invited to come at 11 o'clock and join in the public part of the discussion.

The Institute Feature.

As Lecturer for the Farmers' Alliance we have for some time been urging that the various Alliances to establish an Institute feature for the discussion of topics pertaining to farming as well as matters of public interest. The Alliance has a dual idea, 1st make the needed impress upon legislation, 2nd to better the condition of farmers at home by discussing the scince of farming and giving each other the benefit of their experience and opinions. The machinery of the order is now in fine working condition to accomplish a great deal in the first direction, and it is to accomplish the latter purpose that we have advocated that every lodge established, as one of the features of each meeting, a minature farmers institute. That a programme of subjects and discussions be arranged at one meeting for the next and so on. The five Farmers Alliances of Taylor's Bridge township have adoped this idea and improved upon it, and we take pleasure in recommending this plan to all other Alliances. Instead of having the Institute discussions in the separate lodges each meeting, they have joint meetings quarterly for these discussions. We think this plan will be productive of much good. Let us all try it.

A Correct View of It.

One of the most distinguished gentlemen in the State writes as follows: "I have no fears that the farmers will harm the country. They seem only determined to hurry through the measures they deem essential to their welfare, and who should blame them for this? They need encouragement rather than hostile criticism, and if some of their measures are open to criticism, they are willing to be instructed and have these measures perfected You and others have said over and over again that you are not wedded to any one plan, provided a better one can be suggested. I have an abiding confidence in the American farmer, and when they make certain demands, I think the experiment ought to be made."

The Alliance has Its Eye on Congress.

The question was asked yesterday "How will the next Congressional delegation stand." The answer appears to be about as follows: First District, W. O. Branch, (Alliance;) Second District, J. M. Mewborn, (Alliance); Third District, B. F. Grady, (Alliance); Fourth District, B. F. Bunn, (lawyer, endorsed by Alliance); Fifth District, A. H. A. Williams, (Alliance); Sixth District, S. B. Alexander, (Alliance); Seventh District, John S. Henderson, (lawyer); Eighth District, W. A. Graham, (Alliance); Ninth District, Robert B. Vance, (Alliance); This gives six Alliance men, certain; probable seven. In the Eighth District the contest for the nomination is triangular, between H. H. Cowles, of Wilkes; Bower, of Caldwell; and Graham, of Lincoln. The latter is the Alliance man and his chances are therefore deemed the best. The contest is yet a lively one. Henderson, in the Seventh District, will get the Alliance endorsement.—Raleigh Cor. Wil. Messenger.

What the Alliance has done for Putnam county, it has done for every other county in Georgia to a greater or less degree.

It is a work of which any body of men may well feel proud, for it is a patriotic work with an unselfish end in view—that of helping the people out of their difficulties, raising them from the depth of debt and dispair to the plane of individual independence. While there have been formed more powerful financial combinations for the purpose of amassing great wealth in the hands of a few, there never has been formed before a combination which did so great a work in so short a time, or which has so utilized the small savings of individuals.

But the greatest work of the Alliance has been its practical lessons in economy and business methods. It has largely placed the business of farming on a business basis. It has taught the farmers the importance of keeping books and striking a balance at the end of the year, and if it had accomplished nothing more its work would have been worth millions of dollars to Georgia.

The effect of the work of the Alliance is not alone felt upon the farm, but it has permeated every business interest, and its work is seen in our growing cities in the thousands of new enterprises that have sprung into existence, in the new life that has been intused into all classes of our people.

It is not surprising that, viewing the wonderful work which this organization has accomplished, ambitious men should see in it a means to advance their personal interests and should seek to use it for that purpose—the only wonder is that it has been kept so free from such abuse—and the organization should not be held accountable for all the utterances of its members.—Southern Cultivator.

POLITICS.

There is not a farmer or labor organization that does not in its declaration of principles demond certain reforms which can only be obtained by legislation, yet in these organizations there are men who hold up their hands in holy horror whenever the word "politics" is mentioned, and who have generally succeeded in preventing unified political actions on the part of these organizations in favor of needed reforms by raising the cry of "politics" whenever this matter was broached. Nothing could be more deplorable than forming the organizations into political clubs labeled either "Democratic' or "Republican," but nothing is more silly than the spectacle of demanding certain legislation, and then going out of their meeting halls to the polls and voting not according to the interest of the organization of which they are members, but according to prejudice that they may have inherited from their fathers. They should use the magnificent privilege of the ballot to reward friends and punish enemies regardless of party. If the politians once got that in their heads there would be no need of a labor party, because then all parties would be labor parties.—Dayton Workman.

THOUGHTS ON PRAYER No. 7.

The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Then to make prayer available it must be effectual: it must effect him who offers it: to do this he must live his prayer.

The Father who prays with his family in the morning, as all christian fathers should do, and then as soon as he goes out and finds something wrong he gets angry frets and scolds, destroys his influence for good over his family and the children see no good in prayer suppose all religion a farce, and is it surprising they should think so?

Many confess to the Lord they are poor sinners, and then claim they are doing right when every body else knows they are wrong; they condemn in others what they allow themselves, and if you call attention to the fact, they declare themselves justifiable

Such prayers and confessions have done more to hinder the Gosple and shut out its light from the children than all the native depravity born in them.

J. E BRISTOWE.

The interests of the farmers and the merchants are identical, or so nearly so that there should be no strife between them. Instead of opposing the Alliance, men belonging to other professions should help the farmers secure legislation which will benefit all.—Monroe Register.

Blood Poison

Is very liable to follow contact of the hands or face with what is known as poison ivy, especially in hot weather or if the body is perspiring freely. The trouble may subside for a time, only to appear in aggravated powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla thoroughly eradicate every trace of poison from the blood, as the cures it has accomplished conclusively show. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all other affections arising from impure blood.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup Company.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

Messrs. J. C. Stevenson & Taylor:

GENTLEMEN:—The "Champion Food" you sold us has been given a fair trial, it is a success, and we are glad to add testimony to its worth. when fed to our horses we find it aids digestion, creates an appetite and the animal improves at once; it is a great conditioner, and a trial will prove its value, we have fed it to our cows and with them also it has proved a great digestive, both the flow and the quality of the milk has improved, the per centage of increase we cannot yet positively state. The food does all you claim in the line of tests we have made; we shall continue its use and advise all the owners of stock to give it a trial.

—Salem High School opened last Monday.

—Goshen High School, under the management of Prof. J. D. Ezzell, will open next Monday.

—Several of the soldier boys who could not leave Tuesday evening, will join the company in camp at Wrightsville during the week.

—The editor of the Fayetteville Observer, after returning from the Congressional Convention, refers to Clinton as a beautiful and thrifty town.

—We have received several communications this week, containing news items and also recommendations for various offices, but not being signed we cannot publish them.

—Rev. J. W. Turner goes to Wrightsville this week as Chaplain to the Sampson Light Infantry. In consequence he will not hold service in St. Paul's church on Sunday next.

—A little judicious work on that portion of Main street, between its intersection with Wall street and Dollar Branch, would add wonderfully to the attractions of that popular thoroughfare.

—If the subscription list of THE CAUCASIAN continues to grow, as it has for the last few weeks, we will have over 2,000 by 1891. Sixty four new names have been added to our list since the 1st of July, while only eight have discontinued.

—The County Democratic Executive Committee, in session Monday, requested the chairman to call the township primaries on Saturday, the 23rd of August, and the county convention on the Wednesday succeeding.

—Do you take THE CAUCASIAN? Subscribe now and keep posted on what is going on. It is conceded by the press and the public generally to be one of the best local papers in the State. It is each week a map—a picture of the busy life around us.

—There is a freshet in Great Coharie for the first time since last summer. There was not enough water at any time last winter for turpentine, timber or rosin to be transported to Wilmington. The people along the river are now rafting.

—It is said that while Horace Greely was running a newspaper in New York, that an offended subscriber (so supposed) walked in to the office one morning and said that he was going to stop the paper. Mr. Greeley plead with him not to stop the publication of the paper, as his living depended upon it. The man said he simply wished to stop his copy of the paper. Mr. Greely, with an expression of relief, said that, "that will not hurt me at all." He told the man to go down to the Hudson river, stick his finger in the water, pull it out and then see the hole that he had made in it, and he would see how much his subscription amounted to in the newspaper business.

—The Smithfield Herald referring to the County Primaries says:

"Impress upon your indifferent neighbor the importance of a full attendance. No honest Democrat can afford to stay at home on the 8th day of August, then "cuss" the convention till next November, or for the next two years, because his men were not nominated. No true Democrat can afford to "scratch" his ticket. No "true blue" Democrat can afford to stay away from the primaries. Let one and all go and make the choice of the Democratic party, the choice of the county. Go, every man.

Primaries and County Conventions.

Cumberland county held her primaries for the county convention on last Friday. Harnett county will hold primaries on the 16th; Wake, the 16th; Johnston, the 7th; while a number of counties in this section have already held them. The best time to hold these primaries is some time during the first three weeks of August, for during that time farmers are more at leisure than any other part of the year. The Executive Committees of the various counties should see that these meetings are called at a time when men's business and political duty will conflict the least.

New Registration.

Under the Election Law as passed by the General Assembly of 1889, a new registration is necessary before the next election. The County Commissioners in session Monday appointed the following registrars for the respective townships of Sampson:

REGISTRARS:

South Clinton—B. S. Peterson.

The law requires the Commissioners to publish an official order for such registration, giving thirty days notice. The principal changes made by the new law are:

1st. That the registration books shall be closed on the second Saturday before the election.

2d. No registration shall be valid unless it specifies as near as may be the age, occupation, place of birth and place of residence of the elector, as well as the township or county from whence the elector has removed—in the event of a removal—and the full name by which the voter is known.

3rd. Is the option given the Judges of the election to rail off a polling place, with two openings for entrance, and exit respectively, allowing only one voter to enter at a time, etc., etc.

There will be a Teachers' Institute held in Clinton during the week beginning Monday, August 18th, 1890, conducted by Prof. J. Y. Joyner. All white public schools in session will be suspended during the week of the Institute. All white public school teachers of Sampson county are required to attend continuously the sessions of the Institute, or not be certified as teachers for the ensuing year. Every effort will be made to render the Institute both pleasant and profitable.

Dr. A. Holmes will lecture on Physiology, Monday night.

Rev. J. W. Turner will lecture on Astronomy Wednesday night, Aug. 20th. Lecturers will be secured for other nights.

On Friday, August 22d, there will be special exercises that will be of interest and profit to all who will attend. Addresses that day will be made by Profs. J. Y. Joyner, F. R. Cooper and others, which will do much good to the cause of education if the people will go and hear them.

The Democratic Executive Committee in Session.

The Democratic Executive Committee of this county met in Clinton yesterday. Every township except one was represented. Mr. E. W. Kerr, the chairman, being absent, attending Duplin court, F. R. Cooper, Esq., was elected chairman pro tem. The object of the meeting was to consult as to the best time for holding the township primaries and the county convention. The first date proposed for the primaries was the last Saturday in August. That proposition was voted down on account of the numerous union meetings held on the fifth Saturdays and Sundays. The next proposition was the first Saturday in September, but was objected to on account of Pender court, which would be in session the week of the convention, if it was held any time during the succeeding week. The sheriff of the county stated that if the date was later than the 10th of September that it would inconvenience him in the performance of the duties of his office, usually transacted during the county canvass. A motion was then made to request Mr. Kerr, the chairman, to call the primaries to be held on Saturday, the 23rd of August, and the convention on the succeeding Wednesday, the 27th instant. This motion prevailed.

Grady Asked a Question.

MR. EDITOR: I would like to ask Hon. B. F. Grady a question or two through the columns of your paper:

Why is it that the charges on freight in this State from Clinton to Raleigh is as much or more than from Clinton, N. C., to Jacksonville, Fla.?

Also, why is it that the same quantity and class of freight from Goldsboro to Warsaw costs as much as from Richmond to Warsaw?

MCDANIELS.

Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Cumberland, and Miss Virginia Smith, of Trenton, are visiting relatives in this section.

PINEY GROVE.

Mrs. Mary E. Lindsay, nee Miss Mary E. Anders, died July 29th, with congestion of the brain.

Politics is raging in certain parts of this section.

We hear of a great many candidates in the field for the different offices in the county. Piney Grove askes for a share of these public gifts. Mr. Nathan Weeks is before the people for Register of Deeds. He is a good Democrat, has always been true to the party. Who is Nathan Weeks? may be asked. He is one of the cleverest men in the county, a good business man, well calculated to do the business of the office. He is a cripple, not able to do hard manual labor, then why not give Mr. Weeks the office he has so justly merited.

SCIPIO.

Minnie Jennie Laura Jane Johnson Jerusha Matilda Love Devine Seamore Tany Belle Caroline Katie Moore is the name in full of a negro girl in this township. We fear she will be stunted under the pressure of so much of name.

William R. King, formerly of this township, but now a resident of Clinton, is before the people for Sheriff. Mr. King was an officer in this township for several years. He made a good and correct officer in all his official duties. Not one word was ever said against him. He has always supported the nominees of the Democratic party, and now if rotation is the order of the day let us have William R. King for our next sheriff.

On last Sunday morning fell the hardest rain in the Goshen section during the year.

We hear of several candidates out for constable. They were to have a joint discussion at Giddensville last Saturday evening at three o'clock on the constabulary title. We think the mechanic will "get there, Gallagher, if the bridge is up."

J. C. Hobbs, of Hall's, is a candidate for Clerk, and again, we say that if rotation is what the people of Sampson County desire and are going to have, we know that the people could not make a better selection in Mr. J. C. Hobbs. He is in every way a first-class business man, and a christian gentleman. Hurrah for Hobbs! T.

WESTBROOKS.

Mr. Editor: Notwithstanding the gloomy morning of the 26th the sun burst forth and there were people en route for Wentworth Academy. They come! they come!! was the cry. At 11:10 o'clock the house was called to order by ex-Rep. H. M. Johnson. The query was read and the discussion began at 11:15 and lasted until 1:15 P. M. The attendance large and the best attention was given to the discussion I ever have seen. Each one of the speakers acquitted "themself" well and did credit to the occasion.

Special mention and the hearty congratulations were given to Messrs. Joseph W. Wood and M. Bell, of the affirmative; Mr. W. A. Bell presented a large watermelon to each of the speakers.

Prof. Craven not being present Prof. Ira T. Turlington, the Superintendent of Public Education of Johnston, made some striking remarks as to the discussion and education generally.

Dinner was announced at 1:30 P. M., and a pleasant smile passed over the audience when they saw it coming as it were from out of trees or passing through the air.

The rain hurt the picnic in the afternoon. They danced in Lee's hall. The good people of the Wentworth section know how to have a fine time, and all that were present expressed themselves well pleased with the debate and gave their decision in half of the affirmative.

Thus passed the strongest debate that has ever been held in the Academy. So the old people say.

HONEYCUTTS.

There has been a very interesting revival at McGee's church, conducted by Rev. J. E. Bristowe, and also one at Royal's Chapel, conducted by Rev. G. W. Best.

Politics, seed ticks, bear ticks and other ticks are raging in this section.

We think that we voice this township when we say that we want ——, for the Senate; ——, for Sheriff and ——, for Clerk. REMUS.

Mr. Editor: As you want the township news I am glad to send you some good news from this part of the township.

We have had glorious meetings of fifteen days at Royal's Chapel, conducted by Rev. G. A. Best, our pastor, assisted by Rev. Anderson Butler, a most worthy young man, who preached some most excellent sermons. The result is six members being added to the church, three by baptism, two awaits baptism and one by letter, and two conversions who connected themselves to the Methodist Church, and at the close of the meeting several came forward for prayer.

Our pastor, G. S. Best, visits the sick, the poor and needy and prays with and for them.

Our most excellent school teacher, D. T. Oates, took part in the meeting with us, a worthy young man.

I hear but very little said about politics, but we are solid for our township man for the Senate.

NORTH CLINTON.

I am sorry that the Wilmington Messenger has taken the unwise course it is persuing against the Democratic party, for when it raises its hand against the Alliance it is lifted against that party. Will that paper prove to be traitor to the people that has fed and kept it alive, lo these many years? In nearly every issue it has some direct or indirect slur for the order. It says that Mr. Grady is a black horse. The Hon. B. F. Grady is a lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance, and his life is spotless. There is in the bosom of that man a heart as pure as the spirit of any man that has graced the halls of Congress since the days of Washington. His aims are to promote the interest of the wealth producers and not the hungry tools of monopoly. He is not a worshipper of the great Goddess Diana and of the image which fell down from Jupiter, as newspaper men do for their shrines. Let it be remembered that partizan newspapers, whether they have received patronage and favors at the hands of the bankers or not who profess to have great love and sympathy for our order, and at the same time ridicule and denounce our plans of relief, must either be hypocrits or think that we are fools.

Monopoly did necessitate the formation of the Alliance. When we have suffered under the cruel tyranical hand until we could bear it no longer, patience ceased to be a virtue. When we ask for representation these same papers raise a howl about spliting the Democratic party. They see that they can no longer serve two masters and are now doubtful which way to go. What caused Revolutionary War? The Stamp Act. The colonies objected to it only because it involved a principal. No matter how small the tax might be, they objected to it, for, as they said the British Government had no right to put this or any other tax upon them when they were not represented in the government. "No taxation without representation" was a phrase constantly heard in the colonies in those days, and the excitement about the Stamp Act was the real beginning of the Revoluary war. I ask, is not this the case with the farmer South and West? We have comparatively no representation, or at least that representation is not true to us, yet we are burdened like beasts and ruled by a rod of iron. Instead of being planted by their oppression and nourished by their neglect. Yet notwithstanding all this we are, I believe, as truly loyal as any subjects, but a people jealous of our liberties, and will vindicate them if when be violated.

The Lord has blessed us with the gentle showers and good crops, a plenty of hogs, (barring the cholera) plenty of corn, plenty of potatoes, watermelons, apples and cabbage, and a good crop of cotton and Grady to Congress. Now —— for the Senate and Pigford the Commons, and fair weather to save fodder and cotton, and we will praise them is the united voice of our community. To love Mr. Pigford is to know him. He has never marked with his pen a Democratic nominee. He is temperate and cannot be bought. He is a strong member of the Farmers' Alliance and is fully in sympathy with Agriculture. He is a large and successful farmer. Indeed he is President of the Agricultural Society, and has been for many years the only successful, save one, and if nominated the banner of true Democracy will waive victoriously in his hands, and when we hear from him in the House of Representatives we will rejoice.

I need not say anything of commendation of * * * * * *. We know him to be honest, able and as true as steel.

I will stop this time as it is my first time to attempt to contribute to your worthy columns; and right here allow we to say that of all the papers I see none is more honest and manly, high-toned and truer to our interest than yours. If this is worthy of public notice I will see it again with pleasure. I am your subscriber and field hand. J.

Christian Echoes.

Religious Miscellany--Sermon Reports--General Church News and Notes.

"Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven."

Protracted Meetings.

We have just closed a series of meetings at Keener's Chapel with good results, we believe. We had no great ingathering (only four additions to the Church) but the membership was enlightened from THE WORD and made stronger in the Faith, and it is to be hoped will be more brotherly and Godly in life. It is our opinion that we need more of the revival among those already in the Church than we do of ingatherings. Our churches are already too full of a certain class of so-called Christians and unless we can get good members we had rather not have any. We mean by 'good membdrs' such as are surely converted from sin, and give their lives to usefulness and righteousness. We want no more drunkards in the Church; and we would be glad if such as are habitual dram drinkers would get out. A tipler in the Methodist Church, we believe to be a nuisance. The amount of Spirituality or Godliness in any Church is the measure of its power for good. And the number of whisky and cider drinkers, swearers, fighters and revelers in sinful and worldly pleasures, in any Church is equal to so many dead weights and positive hindrances to the cause.

We rather like the plan of brother Bristowe, of the Sampson circuit, for holding a protracted meeting. A brother from his charge says he opens the front and back doors and lets those who are not obedient, and will not promise amendments, go out at the BACK door. While he receives such as profess Christ and promise obedience to the Church Discipline, into the Church. What benefit can a man be to the Church or the cause of Religion who does nothing to win sinners, but all he can to break down distinctions between sin and godliness, whose whole life is to bring the Church into reproach in the eyes of the sinner because, as he too often supposes, the Churches are all like these ungodly fellows? Let us have the BACK door open and it is well enough sometimes to lead a fellow out when he is so slow to go, and so resolute in his COURSE to stay.

The preaching, in our judgment, should be of an educating, rather than a ROUSING tendency just at this time. It is much for the lack of well defined ideas of duty, and clear and unmistakable knowledge of God's Word, by which we are to be judged, that many members go astray. We have these in the Church and they need the sincere milk of the Word, and this don't mean anything questionable in plan. The Saviour has long since exploded this emotional, and hence impulsive and spasmodic kind of religion based on "I hope to get to heaven and shake hands and embrace my father and mother and husband and little babe, that died; and see aunt Pattie and uncle Jim," and such stuff, that some christians live on. The religion of Jesus is a principle deep-seated in the soul of man, the foundation of which is faith, gratitude, love, producing peace joy and good works. Let us show the fruits of religion to the sinner and he will at least be without excuse, for the argument of fruit is convincing in the strongest degree. It is true we need more energy and more zeal, but let it be according to knowledge, and it will be more lasting and more satisfying; and such will in the end bring more souls to Christ.—Christian Leaflet.

What a Leading Physician Says.
DR. R. S. GORDON, a leading physician of Mt. Carmel, Ill., writes the following under date March 10, '90:
"I cheerfully recommend Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) as a tonic and general health restorer, also in case of Blood Poison it always gives satisfaction."

Years of Suffering.
"For years I have been troubled with a blood taint that has baffled the skill of the best physicians of Ohio and Indiana, the disease finally effected my eyes to such an extent that I was almost blind. I was then induced to take a course of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and am thankful to say that after taking a few bottles I was entirely cured. My eyesight is entirely restored, and my general health is better than it has been for years, and there is no trace of the disease left. I consider S. S. S. the best blood purifier and general health tonic to-day on the market."

Why It Is Popular.
Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.
TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,

A WAYNITE IN SAMPSON.

(Special Correspondent.)

Mr. Editor: It was the pleasure of this writer to be in your beautiful and delightful little town on Tuesday night, prior to the late Democratic Congressional Convention, and, also, on Wednesday, July 23rd, the day the convention convened, or organized and went to work in dead earnest to nominate a candidate for the next Congress. He remained as a spectator of the preceedings of that body until between sunset and dark on the above mentioned day, then in company with a cousin of his, Capt John C. Wright, he left for South Sampson, between the Coharies, on a visit to the families of this cousin, and his brother, Capt. James W. Wright, where he spent Thursday and Friday, returning to his home in this city Saturday morning. He was well pleased with the personal and earnest work of the convention, and while his own townsmrn, Mr. C B. Aycock, was his personal choice for nomination to the most important position, he was well pleased with the ultimate work of that body in giving to the District, the high toned, intelligent and moral gentleman, Prof. B. F. Grady of Duplin. He thinks the Democratic banner has thus been put into the hands of a worthy standard bearer, who will bear it to assured victory, and that when he takes his seat in the 53rd Congress, he will prove himself the peer of any member of that body in intellictual ability and unflinching adherence to Democratic principles. The Democracy of Wayne will readily unite on Mr. Grady, for he is no stranger to our people, having taught school in the lower part of this county for several years since the late war. Mr. Grady will prove himself a formable adversary to any man the Republicans may put out against, even if that adversary be the gifted, the witty orator Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson of this city. On Friday afternoon, July 25th in company with the wife and some of the children of Capt. John and 2 children of Capt. James Wright, this winter attended a very pleasant afternoon picnic of the young and elite of both sexes at Garland's on the C. F. & Y. V. R.R. about 5 miles from Capt. John C. Wright's. The weather was very inclement, the rain pouring down in torrents, in consequences of which the crowd was small, not more than half the number being present that were expected. Nevertheless it was a very enjoyable affair to all, and especially to this writer, who for the first time in the pilgrimage of life, met with many relatives, whom he had never had the pleasure of meeting before. The supper spread was magnificent as to those things that go to refresh and vivify the physical man. All things among the young went as marry and joyous as the dripping elements would permit, thus making this writer often feel, while rang the merry laugh and the ringing glee of the young, the giddy and the gay, the sentiment from the pen of Gray: "It makes an old man's heart rejoice to see the young so gay," Late in the afternoon we returned to our place of sojourn, (Capt. John Wright;) and early next morning left for "Home Sweet Home" in the "Atlanta" of N. C.. Goldsboro, the city of the plain, the queen city of earth, bringing with us fond impressions that will follow us to the grave. The crops corn, cotton, peas, potatoes he found to be splendid in South Sampson. E. A. W.

A NICE LITTLE INDUSTRY.

Riding across country to the Convention the other day, our attention was attracted—when in the vicinity of Clinton and even within the corporate limits of the town—to a growth resembling chufas or shallots, but differing from either. We found it to be the tube-rose, which is beginning to receive attention in that section, bringing good prices in the Northern markets. Mr. Jas. M. Lamb, of the Sunnyside Nursery of this place, is also a large cultivator of the plant, and Mr. Arthur C. Smith, of Red Springs, has devoted much care and attention to its culture.—Fay. Observer.

THE NEW POSTAL CARD.

New postals are soon to be issued by the post-office department. They will be of two sizes—an idea of the Postmaster-General—the bigger ones, which have twice the area of the present postal card, being intended for business communications that cannot very well be crowded, and for other purposes demanding space. Both kinds have in the right-hand upper corners, instead of the representation of a stamp, small portrait of General Grant.

The peculiar enervating effect of summer weather is driven off by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which "makes the weak strong."

POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY.

The toiling masses of the United States will yet learn what force it is that bends their noses to the grindstone of poverty. They will yet discover the person and processes of the pickpocket. They will probe the matter to the bottom and the poorest toiler in shops and mines and in fields will yet learn that labor is made profitless by laws that wrench from the people nearly five hundred millions annually for the Government and twenty five hundred millions, by the same codes for Quay's Trusts.—Ex.

PROSPEROUS AND PROGRESSIVE.

Politics claimed the attention and absorbed the faculties of the panting, prespiring patriots at Clinton; but we were delighted with the evidences of growth and improvement patent on every hand—evidence of pride on the part of the people in their thrifty town and love for their beautiful home. The railroad and the factory have been of great benefit to the business interests of the place.—Fay. Observer.

Sweet sixteen.—"Have you hammocks for sale?"

Salesman.—Yes, mum; double or single?"

Sweet sixteen (blushing furiously)—Why,—er—well let me see; oh, yes, Cousin Nell is coming to visit me, shortly, so I guess I'll take the double one," and the salesman wrapped up a large smile in the bundle as he made the sale.

A Georgia editor leads all the papers on the guessing schemes. It asks its subscribers to "guess who owes three years' subscription and refuses to pay it in sweet potatoes."
